BOUND OVER WITHOUT BAIL

Z. S. ROBISON GOES TO JAIL

The Ball Went Into the Temple and Out of the Eye

IS DR. C. B. OGDEN'S OPINION

George Perry Swore That He Believed the Prisoner Committed the Crime, and George A. Weigand Related What He Had Before Given at the Inquest—He Was Excited So That He Did Not Know Whether the Woman Lay With Her Head Toward the Window—The Defense Had No Witnesses.

Z. S. Robison, charged with the murder of his wife, was bound to the grand jury by Mayor Gilbert this morning.

The usual crowd of curious ones had gathered about the door long before the hearing began, and the manner in which they craned forward their heads and pushed and jostled when the prisoner came in showed conclusively that interest in the tragedy of last Saturday night had abated very little, if indeed it had quieted at all. George Perry, Robert Donaldson and Geo. A. Weigand were there early, and Doctor Ikirt and Doctor Ogdon were present before the appointed time. A plan of the room in which the woman was murdered had been prepared by Chief Johnson, and was on exhibition and for use of the witnesses. In a short time all the witnesses had arrived, and the court was ready for active operations. It was given out that only three witnesses would be examined, they to show that the accused was in the room immediately after the shot was fired.

Officers McMillan and Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Weigand, E. A. Wilson, George Perry, Doctor Ikirt, William Morrow, W. E. Stewart and Robert Donaldson were seated inside the railing in the council chamber, and Attorney Grosshans, the son of the accused and a stenographer occupied the other side of the enclosure. There was some delay in the proceedings, and, although the hearing was set for 10 o'clock, it was 15 minutes after that time when Chief Johnson entered the room with Z. S. Robison, the accused. He took a seat beside his attorney, and the trial began. The room rapidly filled with people, and in a few minutes after the prisoner arrived it was crowded.

The prisoner looked with curiosity at the witnesses as they arose to be sworn, and with interest at Attorney Grosshans when he asked that they be separated. They walked out of the room, and George Perry, bartender at the Hotel Grand, took the chair.

"I was in the bar about 5 o'clock Saturday, when Weigand ran downstairs and said, 'There's a murder. That man has shot his wife,'" is how he began his testimony. "I told Mr. Kinney to stay in the bar, and ran upstairs with Weigand. The door was opened, and Robison was kneeling beside his wife, sponging off her face. Weigand told him to 'give this gentleman the gun.' I reached around the door and got it. He said I needn't be scared, it was only a flesh wound. I believe the party sitting over there now is the one who did the shooting."

"I was standing outside the door when Weigand asked him to give me the gun," he said on cross examination. "The door was open, and he was kneeling beside her. I saw the corpse on the floor. There was no one but the man and his wife in the room. Weigand, Morrow and others were with me. I heard them following up the stairs."

"I live in Pittsburg," said George A. Weigand, in answer to the first question, "and I was at the Grand April 24. I had been in the room with my wife. A shot was fired and my wife screamed. I ran down stairs for Perry. We came back again, and went inside the room and saw Robison and a lady there. He handed the revolver to Perry, and says 'this is what done it,' or something like that. The woman lay on the floor, bleeding. I didn't see the shooting. I believe Robison did it."

"It was about 5 o'clock," he said in cross examination, and I was in the room because my wife was getting ready for the race. Certainly I was afraid of the man; but he handed the revolver to Perry. I saw the letter in the room. The prisoner was over by the body. He handed the letter to Perry when he was by the bed. I didn't read the letter at that time, nor even look at it. I had been with the prisoner in the afternoon, about one hour before this occurred. When we came back from the walk I went right to my room, and told him he could take care of the ladies at the rink that night while I raffled off the watches. I don't know that I have been interviewed by newspaper men since the inquest. Robison and I have always been friendly, and I have met him in the last two years. We never traveled together much when on the road. I have been married five years, Dec. 19, 1892, by Mayor McKenna, and have the certificate in my room if you wish it."

The attorney for the defense asked that the physicians be separated, but Mayor Gilbert said he was not going to call Doctor Ikirt, and Doctor Ogden was put on the stand.

"I was called to the Hotel Grand on Saturday evening, the party saying someone had been shot. Mr. Stewart showed me to the room, but the door was locked. We knocked, and the man said he didn't need a doctor, it was simply a flesh wound, and he would attend to it himself. The woman was on the bed in a dying condition, and I told the man her death was only the question of a few minutes. We made a superficial examination. She was suffering from a pistol shot wound."

The doctor was not cross examined with vigor. "We examined the wound afterward at the postmortem. There was a cut in the left temple. The bullet penetrated the right temple bone, and come out by the eye. Some sharp edged instrument caused the scar. The ball passed from the temple and came out the eye. I do not think the wound from the sharp instrument would cause death. I think the sole cause of death was the pistol shot. I am positive the bullet entered the right temple and came out the eye."

George A. Weigand was recalled, and the attorney for the defense read his testimony at the inquest from a newspaper. Mayor Gilbert interrupted him with the remark that the report was from a paper, and he did not know whether it was verbatem. Anyhow it had no bearing on the case.

"As near as I can judge," said Weigand, "the corpse was laying near the window. The bed was on the right, and she was on the floor. I don't know which way she was laying. I was so excited I didn't notice. I don't know whether her head or feet were toward the window."

"We will rest," said Mayor Gilbert, and the attorney for the defense conferred with Attorney J. H. Brookes, who had been an interested spectator.

"I find sufficient cause to commit this man to jail without bail," continued the mayor, "charged with murder in the first degree."

Robison looked as though he had expected it, and, leaning toward his son, talked with him for a few minutes. Then he was taken downstairs and locked in his cell. He will be taken to Lisbon by Chief Johnson and Mayor Gilbert in the morning, a cell having already been prepared for his reception by Sheriff Gill. The son said to the NEWS REVIEW that he did not know whether other counsel would be employed to defend his father, and if this was decided upon he did not know who would be employed. He returned to Pittsburg at noon today.

THE BODY CAME BACK.

An Error Caused Some Annoyance and Disappointment.

J. D. West, in accordance with instructions from Mrs. Haskins, a sister of the deceased, took the body of Mrs. Robison to Pittsburg yesterday afternoon. It was expected that friends and an undertaker would meet them at the Union station, but when they arrived no one was there. Mr. West waited until midnight, and having received no further instructions there was no other course than to return with the copse to this city. It was brought here on the midright train, and this morning returned to the room where it was taken after the shooting.

This afternoon some well known ladies of the city decided that the woman should have a Christian burial, and accordingly made the necessary arrangements.

At noon today Mayor Gilbert received a telegram from Mrs. Haskins asking that the body be sent to Pittsburg at noon and if that could not be done to send it on the evening train. To this Mayor Gilbert replied that it would be better if she could send someone here for the remains. An answer came that a man would come on the afternoon train. Mr. West was notified, but will not take the body to the 4:20 train. If the friends desire to have it taken on that train it will not take long to make the necessary arrangements. The ladies learned from Mayor Gilbert of the telegrams, and, as the body is in the casket, decided to do nothing unless the woman's friends did not come.

It was plainly the intention of the parties in Pittsburg to allow the remains to be interred here, for this morning the mayor received a telegram which said to bury the body here and ship the trunk to Pittsburg. It was signed, like the others, by Mrs. Haskins.

YOUNG ROBISON'S VIEW

He Thinks There Will Be Some Great Surprises.

Thomas Robison, son of Z. S. Robison, now in the city jail, returned to Pittsburg today on the noon train. When asked if he would come back to this city he said:

"I will not see my father until I meet him again in Lisbon. I feel as if I hadn't a friend in the world, and the thought that my father has been charged with what he has is almost unbearable. Time will tell, though, and I expect things will turn out different than what most people think."

CASE AGAINST WILSON DROPPED.

The charge against E. A. Wilson before Squire Manley for a board bill of $73.75 was withdrawn last evening and he paid the costs. Joseph Stanway received a check for $10 from Allum, and was given possession of the goods in the rink, which, when sold, will net about $20. This is not the end of the case, however, and Mr. Stanway will not be satisfied until he is paid the entire amount of the board bill.

ROBISON IS DESPONDENT.

He Has Almost Given Up All Hope of Being Freed.

Robison spends the greater part of his time staring through the bars of his cell and saying nothing. Yesterday, in conversation with Mayor Gilbert, he said, "I have almost given up all hope. At times I think my soul would burst out." This morning when taken to the court room he stared vacantly in front of him, and did not appear to care what they did with him.

NEXT THURSDAY

Deputy Tom Craighton today served subpoenas on the witnesses who will go before the grand jury on Thursday when the Robison case will be heard. They are W. E. Stewart, George Perry, William Morrow, Mr. and Mrs. Weigand, John Donaldson, Doctor Ikirt, Doctor Ogden, E. A. Wilson, and Officers McMillan, Peterson and Bryan.

HAS THE RIGHT SOUND.

President Peach, of City Council, Speaks Out.

A representative of the NEWS REVIEW interviewed President Peach, of city council, respecting certain allegations which had been made concerning him and other members of the present council, and the following answer, containing the right ring, as of true metal, is the result:

"I have been misrepresented by your informant. I shall endeavor, to the very best of my ability, to do my duty to my constituents. It is my duty, in common with my fellow members of council, to do all that can be done by us for the enforcement of the laws and ordinances controlling this municipality, and for the passing of such new laws and ordinances as will best subserve the interests of East Liverpool and her citizens. I speak for myself when I say I shall do my utmost to deserve the confidence reposed in me by my fellow citizens. I shall stand for law, order and enterprise, and for the right, as I am given to see the right. No man or body of men can command (and enforce that command) me to do an evil act against the masses of good citizenship, or compel me to wink at the enactment of an act or ordinance which will result in injury to this city. You can say this for me, if you so desire, although I have no special wish for newspaper notoriety. Further, I believe that my fellow members of council will back up what I have said."

Certainly, this language has the right ring, and if President Peach carries his words into action, as we believe he will, he will have the staunch support of the NEWS REVIEW, as well as that of every right thinking, law abiding citizen.

WILLIE GEISSE SAID MALONE SHOT HIM

SOME STARTLING TESTIMONY

Given by the Dead Boy's Favorite Brother.

MAYOR JONES BOUND HIM OVER

Two Revolvers, One With a Broken Handle, Played an Important Part In the Hearing—Mrs. Geisse, Between Sobs, Told Her Story—No Living Person Saw the Shot Fired—There Was a Great Difference of Opinion as to Whether Willie Geisse Was Hit Before He Stepped Through the Door.

"I bind the prisoner over to the court of common pleas, where he will appear forthwith to answer to the charge of murder in the first degree, and where he will, I believe, be given a speedy and just trial," were the words with which Mayor Jones last night ended the hearing of Patrick Malone, accused of the murder of Willie Geisse; and "thank you, sir," heartily spoken, was the manner in which the prisoner, with a perceptible sigh of relief, received the decision.

Shortly after the NEWS REVIEW report closed yesterday afternoon, a stenographer was secured for the defense, and the hearing proceeded.

Ed Geisse was the first witness. He said: "I reside in Wellsville, and was in Third street last Friday night about 8 o'clock, but before we go any farther in this trial I want to get these few specks of powder out of my face."

"I saw Malone that evening in the saloon of George Noble, about 7 o'clock. I was not with him all evening. I saw him again about 9:30 in Third street. He came down and went between the chapel and the building next to it. Later he came back, and mother followed him. Then she went back. Mary Dennis was with her. I heard some noise, and I walked about 10 feet from where I was. There was considerable noise in mother's house. I went to the house, and entered by a side door. I saw mother going upstairs with a lamp, and I went up. I heard Malone talking loud and using bad talk. I stopped awhile, then went into the front room. I told Malone if he couldn't behave to go out of the house. He said, 'I'll give it to you, too,' and then struck me in the right jaw. I knocked him down. He got up, and I knocked him down again. I then struck at him with my left hand, and I fell over a chair. I gathered myself up and went at him again, and he held a revolver in my face. I reached for his right hand, with the revolver in it, and he fired. I struck him and knocked him down again, and kicked him twice. He arose, and I passed out of the door leading into the basement. He was still after me with the revolver. I got downstairs in about three steps. John Dennis grabbed him, and I went in. My mother was crying that Will was shot and I said: 'No, I don't think he is. If anybody is shot it is me.' Cohagan entered and took Malone out. We have not been the best of friends. He never threatened me, only what I have heard other people say. Frank has Malone's gun. I don't know how he got it. I got a gun after the shooting was done, but dropped it on the floor. I would know my gun. It had three full shots in it, no empty shells, and a piece of the handle was broken. It had five or six chambers."

"I got the gun in the cupboard and a club with it. I didn't see Will after I knocked Pat down the second time. I saw him before this in the hall door in the front room, just a minute or two before the shot. There was only one shot fired that evening."

This closed the direct testimony and he was cross-examined by Attorney Brooks. The witness stated he had not been drinking before the affair. He said Malone had been at his mother's since he had been loafing. He said Malone was on good terms with the entire family, and acknowledged that he didn't like the prisoner and had ordered him out of the house several times. He also said he had followed his mother upstairs a few feet back of her, and said there was a fight in the front room. A plan of the house was submitted, and Geisse was asked to explain his movements, which he did. He said he hit Malone in the right eye the first time, but when he got a look at the prisoner he changed his answer, as Malone's left eye was very black. He also stated he hit Malone with a ball bat when Dennis had him down. "I do not own a pistol, but have had one for a week, which I borrowed from Amos Herron to shoot a dog."

Frank Geisse was called. He had a plan of the house and submitted it. He said: "I went to the pump house at 9 o'clock. When I returned I heard some women scream. I started and ran to the house and found Cohagan, mother, Pat Malone, Ed and Uncle John in the back room. Cohagan told me he had a warrant for Malone, and I cleared things and Cohagan arrested him. I didn't hear a shot fired. When I went for towels for Will I found a pistol in the hallway by the door. I never saw the pistol before."

It was produced and had four full loads in it and one empty chamber. The cross examination was lengthy, but developed nothing.

Doctors Noble, Hutchinson and Tarr gave expert testimony as to the death of William Geisse and the course of the bullet.

Mrs. Geisse was called and said: "I was at home Friday evening about 9 o'clock. There was some trouble. There was shooting, but only one shot fired. I didn't see it fired and didn't know Will was in the house. I think Willie passed me on the porch after the shot was fired. I saw Malone before the trouble. I didn't see Ed. I left Malone by the middle door. I took the lamp and the clock and Malone came up after me to the second floor. Malone and I had trouble in the kitchen. I remember that Ed and Will came in and went out. I saw Malone with a revolver last Monday night. I think I would know it again." Mrs. Geisse was greatly agitated, and between sobs told her story.

The revolvers were shown and she identified the one Malone had as the one Jabby claimed to have taken from the cupboard." Attorney Brookes asked the court to examine and asked the privilege of labeling it "exhibit A."

In cross examination the witness said: "I went ahead with the lamp and clock, and Malone followed me a few feet. I didn't see Ed at that time. I am sure Ed was not on the scene at that time. There was no light in the front room. I heard blows in the house and think I heard Malone say: 'don't hit me and I'll give it to you.'" I think I saw Willie pass me. I did not see Malone have a pistol when we were quarreling, but he told me he had one. We have a ball bat around the house; it was caught in the Johnstown flood. It is about three feet long and about 2½ inches wide. I don't know where it was kept."

John Dennis was called: He told the same story as that given at the inquest and published in the NEWS REVIEW yesterday, with the exception that he said: "I found Malone in a stooping position." When cross examined he stated that he thought Frank had told him where he had found the revolver and said he did not see Ed Geisse hit Malone with a ball bat, because he didn't have any in his hand.

Officer Cohagan said: "I was in front of the Fuller house when the trouble occurred, and ran down Third street and passed Will Geisse lying on the pavement. I think Mary Dennis had his head in her lap. I ran into the house and saw John Dennis had Malone on the bed with his hand on his throat. Dennis told me Malone had done the shooting. I took him through the door. Jabby struck Malone with a club. It looked to me like a large sized blackjack. John helped out on the front porch and from there I had no trouble with the prisoner. Ed Geisse hit Malone, but I am not real sure in what part of the house it was. It was a black looking object. The swish I felt was very uncomfortable. It was not a ball bat."

The cross examination did not change the testimony and Mary Dennis was called. She said: "I saw Malone last Friday evening in Third street at about 9:30 o'clock. He was in the street the first time I saw him and in the house the second time. He came up to me while I was talking to my sister. He had a revolver in his hand and said: "I am going to blow your brother's insides out and empty every bit of lead in that into John and Jabby. He put it in my face when he said this. This was between nine and ten o'clock. I walked out between the church into Third street and stood there a short time and heard my sister cry murder. Before reaching the corner I heard a shot fired. I started to the corner and saw my nephew

It was brought here on the midright train, and this morning returned to the room where it was taken after the shooting.

This afternoon some well known ladies of the city decided that the woman should have a Christian burial, and accordingly made the necessary arrangements.

At noon today Mayor Gilbert received a telegram from Mrs. Haskins asking that the body be sent to Pittsburg at noon and if that could not be done to send it on the evening train. To this Mayor Gilbert replied that it would be better if she could send someone here for the remains. An answer came that a man would come on the afternoon train. Mr. West was notified, but will not take the body to the 4:20 train. If the friends desire to have it taken on that train it will not take long to make the necessary arrangements. The ladies learned from Mayor Gilbert of the telegrams, and, as the body is in the casket, decided to do nothing unless the woman's friends did not come.

It was plainly the intention of the parties in Pittsburg to allow the remains to be interred here, for this morning the mayor received a telegram which said to bury the body here and ship the trunk to Pittsburg. It was signed, like the others, by Mrs. Haskins.

YOUNG ROBISON'S VIEW

He Thinks There Will Be Some Great Surprises.

Thomas Robison, son of Z. S. Robison, now in the city jail, returned to Pittsburg today on the noon train. When asked if he would come back to this city he said:

"I will not see my father until I meet him again in Lisbon. I feel as if I hadn't a friend in the world, and the thought that my father has been charged with what he has is almost unbearable. Time will tell, though, and I expect things will turn out different than what most people think."

CASE AGAINST WILSON DROPPED.

The charge against E. A. Wilson before Squire Manley for a board bill of $73.75 was withdrawn last evening and he paid the costs. Joseph Stanway received a check for $10 from Allum, and was given possession of the goods in the rink, which, when sold, will net about $20. This is not the end of the case, however, and Mr. Stanway will not be satisfied until he is paid the entire amount of the board bill.

ROBISON IS DESPONDENT.

He Has Almost Given Up All Hope of Being Freed.

Robison spends the greater part of his time staring through the bars of his cell and saying nothing. Yesterday, in conversation with Mayor Gilbert, he said, "I have almost given up all hope. At times I think my soul would burst out." This morning when taken to the court room he stared vacantly in front of him, and did not appear to care what they did with him.

NEXT THURSDAY

Deputy Tom Craighton today served subpoenas on the witnesses who will go before the grand jury on Thursday when the Robison case will be heard. They are W. E. Stewart, George Perry, William Morrow, Mr. and Mrs. Weigand, John Donaldson, Doctor Ikirt, Doctor Ogden, E. A. Wilson, and Officers McMillan, Peterson and Bryan.

HAS THE RIGHT SOUND.

President Peach, of City Council, Speaks Out.

A representative of the NEWS REVIEW interviewed President Peach, of city council, respecting certain allegations which had been made concerning him and other members of the present council, and the following answer, containing the right ring, as of true metal, is the result:

"I have been misrepresented by your informant. I shall endeavor, to the very best of my ability, to do my duty to my constituents. It is my duty, in common with my fellow members of council, to do all that can be done by us for the enforcement of the laws and ordinances controlling this municipality, and for the passing of such new laws and ordinances as will best subserve the interests of East Liverpool and her citizens. I speak for myself when I say I shall do my utmost to deserve the confidence reposed in me by my fellow citizens. I shall stand for law, order and enterprise, and for the right, as I am given to see the right. No man or body of men can command (and enforce that command) me to do an evil act against the masses of good citizenship, or compel me to wink at the enactment of an act or ordinance which will result in injury to this city. You can say this for me, if you so desire, although I have no special wish for newspaper notoriety. Further, I believe that my fellow members of council will back up what I have said."

Certainly, this language has the right ring, and if President Peach carries his words into action, as we believe he will, he will have the staunch support of the NEWS REVIEW, as well as that of every right thinking, law abiding citizen.

WILLIE GEISSE SAID MALONE SHOT HIM

SOME STARTLING TESTIMONY

Given by the Dead Boy's Favorite Brother.

MAYOR JONES BOUND HIM OVER

Two Revolvers, One With a Broken Handle, Played an Important Part In the Hearing—Mrs. Geisse, Between Sobs, Told Her Story—No Living Person Saw the Shot Fired—There Was a Great Difference of Opinion as to Whether Willie Geisse Was Hit Before He Stepped Through the Door.

"I bind the prisoner over to the court of common pleas, where he will appear forthwith to answer to the charge of murder in the first degree, and where he will, I believe, be given a speedy and just trial," were the words with which Mayor Jones last night ended the hearing of Patrick Malone, accused of the murder of Willie Geisse; and "thank you, sir," heartily spoken, was the manner in which the prisoner, with a perceptible sigh of relief, received the decision.

Shortly after the NEWS REVIEW report closed yesterday afternoon, a stenographer was secured for the defense, and the hearing proceeded.

Ed Geisse was the first witness. He said: "I reside in Wellsville, and was in Third street last Friday night about 8 o'clock, but before we go any farther in this trial I want to get these few specks of powder out of my face."

Mayor Jones decided he could stand it for a short time, and Geisse continued: "I saw Malone that evening in the saloon of George Noble, about 7 o'clock. I was not with him all evening. I saw him again about 9:30 in Third street. He came down and went between the chapel and the building next to it. Later he came back, and mother followed him. Then she went back. Mary Dennis was with her. I heard some noise, and I walked about 10 feet from where I was. There was considerable noise in mother's house. I went to the house, and entered by a side door. I saw mother going upstairs with a lamp, and I went up. I heard Malone talking loud and using bad talk. I stopped awhile, then went into the front room. I told Malone if he couldn't behave to go out of the house. He said, 'I'll give it to you, too,' and then struck me in the right jaw. I knocked him down. He got up, and I knocked him down again. I then struck at him with my left hand, and I fell over a chair. I gathered myself up and went at him again, and he held a revolver in my face. I reached for his right hand, with the revolver in it, and he fired. I struck him and knocked him down again, and kicked him twice. He arose, and I passed out of the door leading into the basement. He was still after me with the revolver. I got downstairs in about three steps. John Dennis grabbed him, and I went in. My mother was crying that Will was shot and I said: 'No, I don't think he is. If anybody is shot it is me.' Cohagan entered and took Malone out. We have not been the best of friends. He never threatened me, only what I have heard other people say. Frank has Malone's gun. I don't know how he got it. I got a gun after the shooting was done, but dropped it on the floor. I would know my gun. It had three full shots in it, no empty shells, and a piece of the handle was broken. It had five or six chambers."

"I got the gun in the cupboard and a club with it. I didn't see Will after I knocked Pat down the second time. I saw him before this in the hall door in the front room, just a minute or two before the shot. There was only one shot fired that evening."

This closed the direct testimony and he was cross-examined by Attorney Brooks. The witness stated he had not been drinking before the affair. He said Malone had been at his mother's since he had been loafing. He said Malone was on good terms with the entire family, and acknowledged that he didn't like the prisoner and had ordered him out of the house several times. He also said he had followed his mother upstairs a few feet back of her, and said there was a fight in the front room. A plan of the house was submitted, and Geisse was asked to explain his movements, which he did. He said he hit Malone in the right eye the first time, but when he got a look at the prisoner he changed his answer, as Malone's left eye was very black. He also stated he hit Malone with a ball bat when Dennis had him down. "I do not own a pistol, but have had one for a week, which I borrowed from Amos Herron to shoot a dog."

Frank Geisse was called. He had a plan of the house and submitted it. He said: "I went to the pump house at 9 o'clock. When I returned I heard some women scream. I started and ran to the house and found Cohagan, mother, Pat Malone, Ed and Uncle John in the back room. Cohagan told me he had a warrant for Malone, and I cleared things and Cohagan arrested him. I didn't hear a shot fired. When I went for towels for Will I found a pistol in the hallway by the door. I never saw the pistol before."

It was produced and had four full loads in it and one empty chamber. The cross examination was lengthy, but developed nothing.

Doctors Noble, Hutchinson and Tarr gave expert testimony as to the death of William Geisse and the course of the bullet.

Mrs. Geisse was called and said: "I was at home Friday evening about 9 o'clock. There was some trouble. There was shooting, but only one shot fired. I didn't see it fired and didn't know Will was in the house. I think Willie passed me on the porch after the shot was fired. I saw Malone before the trouble. I didn't see Ed. I left Malone by the middle door. I took the lamp and the clock and Malone came up after me to the second floor. Malone and I had trouble in the kitchen. I remember that Ed and Will came in and went out. I saw Malone with a revolver last Monday night. I think I would know it again." Mrs. Geisse was greatly agitated, and between sobs told her story.

The revolvers were shown and she identified the one Malone had as the one Jabby claimed to have taken from the cupboard." Attorney Brookes asked the court to examine and asked the privilege of labeling it "exhibit A."

In cross examination the witness said: "I went ahead with the lamp and clock, and Malone followed me a few feet. I didn't see Ed at that time. I am sure Ed was not on the scene at that time. There was no light in the front room. I heard blows in the house and think I heard Malone say: 'don't hit me and I'll give it to you.'" I think I saw Willie pass me. I did not see Malone have a pistol when we were quarreling, but he told me he had one. We have a ball bat around the house; it was caught in the Johnstown flood. It is about three feet long and about 2½ inches wide. I don't know where it was kept."

John Dennis was called: He told the same story as that given at the inquest and published in the NEWS REVIEW yesterday, with the exception that he said: "I found Malone in a stooping position." When cross examined he stated that he thought Frank had told him where he had found the revolver and said he did not see Ed Geisse hit Malone with a ball bat, because he didn't have any in his hand.

Officer Cohagan said: "I was in front of the Fuller house when the trouble occurred, and ran down Third street and passed Will Geisse lying on the pavement. I think Mary Dennis had his head in her lap. I ran into the house and saw John Dennis had Malone on the bed with his hand on his throat. Dennis told me Malone had done the shooting. I took him through the door. Jabby struck Malone with a club. It looked to me like a large sized blackjack. John helped out on the front porch and from there I had no trouble with the prisoner. Ed Geisse hit Malone, but I am not real sure in what part of the house it was. It was a black looking object. The swish I felt was very uncomfortable. It was not a ball bat."

The cross examination did not change the testimony and Mary Dennis was called. She said: "I saw Malone last Friday evening in Third street at about 9:30 o'clock. He was in the street the first time I saw him and in the house the second time. He came up to me while I was talking to my sister. He had a revolver in his hand and said: "I am going to blow your brother's insides out and empty every bit of lead in that into John and Jabby. He put it in my face when he said this. This was between nine and ten o'clock. I walked out between the church into Third street and stood there a short time and heard my sister cry murder. Before reaching the corner I heard a shot fired. I started to the corner and saw my nephew

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., TUESDAY, APRIL 27.

HOLDING the Republican convention June 15 seems to suit all the interested parties very well.

MR. CLEVELAND is beyond the range of public gaze, but has fallen victim to the assaults of the letter writer. Since his arrival at Princeton the mail has increased so that the postmaster has found it necessary to increase his clerical force.

CONGRESSMAN SHATTUC, the Ohio man who dared to appoint a colored boy to the naval academy, is being heartily commended. Strange as it may seem, the only condemnation he received came from the academy and extreme sections of the south.

IT matters not how dissatisfied the farmers may be with the wool schedule of the Dingley bill, the fact remains that it is having a good effect on the market. When wool reaches 22 cents a pound, after the ruinous prices of the past three years, there is no denying the presence of a factor of merit.

THE New York people hail the dedication of the Grant memorial with every manifestation of delight. They always loved General Grant, and then the million or more strangers who witnessed the ceremony will leave something like $5,000,000 in the city, at the least calculation.

THE ROBISON MURDER.

The murder of Mrs. Alice Robison cannot be stretched by the most elastic of imaginations into an evidence of depravity or a tendency toward crime in this place. The woman who is dead, the man accused of her murder and all their friends connected with the late walking match, were strangers to East Liverpool and its people, and only came here in the hope of making money at our expense. They had nothing in common with this place, and the fact that the venture cost is backers something like $200 is sufficient to show that the people had little sympathy with them or their performance.

THE STORY TOLD.

The NEWS REVIEW last night contained a complete and connected story of the Robison murder from the time accused stepped off the train at the Cleveland and Pittsburg passenger station Saturday afternoon until the accused said goodby to his son after the arraignment at city hall, only a short time before the forms went down stairs. The exclusive matter it contained was of a character well calculated to make it interesting in the extreme, and that it was appreciated was proven by the great demand for copies of the edition, the average reader preferring an authentic account to the garbled reports of an earlier edition.

A DESPERATE EFFORT.

A leading crockery importing house of New York injects into its advertisement in a trade paper the venom it would direct toward the American industry through the editorial columns of an organ, if it was possible to possess anything so valuable. It styles the crockery schedules of the Dingley bill an East Liverpool schedule, and declares that it is made with no other thought than to benefit the potting trade of this place. The attack is as untruthful as it is bitter, and can be taken for nothing more than the personal feeling of someone, who, having received great benefits at the hands of the last administration, objects to it as they are about to be taken away.

Will Exterminate the Carp.

MASSILLON, O., April 27.—Deputy State Game Warden Dangelheisen expects Chief Warden Reutinger within a few days, and with him will arrange plans for exterminating the carp which infest the Tuscarawas river and neighboring streams. This war against the carp will be waged throughout the state.

DEPENDS ON JONES

Whether Tariff Bill Stays Long In Committee.

DEMOCRATS NOT IN A HURRY.

They Announce Their Purpose to Object to the Measure Being Sent Direct to the Senate—The Nevada Man Holds the Key to the Situation.

WASHINGTON, April 27.—The Democratic members of the finance committee will not accept the proposition made by their Republican colleagues to allow the tariff bill to be reported direct to the senate without passing through the hands of the full committee, and have so notified the Republican members.

The Democrats have not yet decided how much time they may want for the consideration of the bill in committee, and will not be able to decide until they see the amended bill, and also ascertain the position that Senator Jones of Nevada will assume toward the measure. He will hold the balance of power in the committee, and if he throws his influence with the Democrats they can hold the bill in committee for an indefinite length of time. He has told the Republican members of the committee that he still holds views favorable to protection, and has given them to understand that he will support the bill if it conforms to his ideas. He has asked in a general way for increased protection on the products of the far west.

If these concessions are made it is not believed that he would assist in holding the bill in committee for any length of time, even if the Democrats should so desire.

Senator White, a member of the finance committee, was asked his views regarding the matter and is believed to have voiced the views of all the Democratic members in his reply. He said: "I would be glad to gratify the personal inclinations of any senator, but, speaking for myself only, I am unable to perceive the propriety of such a course and cannot acquiesce in it. When the bill is reported to the senate the Democratic members ought to be able to immediately lay before their colleagues a comparatively full statement of the infirmities of the proposed measure. This cannot be done unless the subject is properly discussed in committee and if examined there with care much labor will be saved when the proposition is submitted to the senate.

"If the Democratic members are of any use on the committee it must be because they will be able to give this information. Besides, a fair presentation of the views of the minority may lead to immediate changes in improvement of the bill. If we consent to the adoption of the plan outlined by the Republican members it will be said that we have given away our case and are representing but half hearted opposition. Such a scheme would be novel, would require explanation, and cannot result favorably to public interests. If our Republican brethren have improved the bill so as to make it possibly digestible they can afford to sumit it to careful and conservative criticism in the committee room."

JUDGE DAY NOMINATED.

Bellamy Storer Also Named as Minister to Belgium.

WASHINGTON, April 27.—The President has sent the following nominations to the senate.

William R. Day of Ohio, to be assistant secretary of state; Bellamy Storer of Ohio, to be envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to Belgium: George M. Fisk of Ohio, to be second secretary of the embassy of the United States at Berlin.

Both Houses Adjourned.

WASHINGTON, April 27.—Both houses of congress adjourned promptly without transacting any business, under agreements that nothing shall be done legislatively until next week, owing to the Grant memorial ceremonies at New York.

Theodore Havemeyer Dead.

NEW YORK, April 27.—Theodore Havemeyer, president of the American Sugar Refining company, has died at his home in this city.

GREAT LAND SALE!

The Chester Land Company

WILL ON TUESDAY, APRIL 27,

AT 1:30 O'CLOCK P. M.,

AGAIN PLACE THEIR LOTS UPON THE MARKET.

This will give to the people of East Liverpool and vicinity an opportunity to get a home at hitherto unheard of prices. These lots were placed upon the market last fall for a period of five weeks, and we then sold over $39,000 worth of property, and were then taken off the market until now. This property it is unnecessary to describe to our citizens, as it is so well known to all, being that beautiful level river front and bottom land lying immediately opposite East Liverpool, between the new bridge and Rock Spring Pleasure Resort. The lots are all large and level, mostly 40x140 feet, and fronting on wide beautiful streets. These lots we propose selling at last year's prices, which range from $200 to $500 a lot, and on terms to suit the purchaser. Special inducements to purchasers on the opening day, so intending buyers should be on hand and thus save a liberal discount.

What Has Chester to Offer to Intending Purchasers? Chester is, from a commercial standpoint, a part and parcel of East Liverpool, one of the most progressive cities of a population of 15,000 to be found anywhere; where real estate is high and advancing daily; where a good residence lot anywhere near the center of the city will cost you from $3,000 to $5,000. Why pay such fabulous prices when a better lot can be had in Chester for from $300 to $500.

Chester will be connected with East Liverpool inside of the next 20 days with an electric railway. The Panhandle railroad will be extended this summer, and when this is done we will have two factories located in Chester which will give employment to 500 skilled workmen, which alone will insure a population of 2,000 people. This, with the natural overflow from our already crowded and thickly built city insures for Chester a population of several thousand people. Do not stand back and say this cannot be, for we have already demonstrated to this community our ability to work out problems of this character.

Chester is no myth, as many of our wealthiest and most influential citizens are placing their money there. Some of them have already erected substantial business buildings, and others are preparing to do so, and before the snow falls we shall see a thrifty little city of considerable magnitude.

Chester is located in West Virginia, the home of low taxation, taxes being 8-10 of 1 per cent.

Speculators and investors, no such an opportunity for large returns on your money has ever knocked at your door, and perhaps will never come again. Those who are wise will be on hand and avail themselves of this great opportunity to secure a valuable lot for a small amount of money. The sale will commence on the ground Tuesday, April 27, 1897, at 1:30 o'clock p. m. For further information address

Senator White, a member of the finance committee, was asked his views regarding the matter and is believed to have voiced the views of all the Democratic members in his reply. He said: "I would be glad to gratify the personal inclinations of any senator, but, speaking for myself only, I am unable to perceive the propriety of such a course and cannot acquiesce in it. When the bill is reported to the senate the Democratic members ought to be able to immediately lay before their colleagues a comparatively full statement of the infirmities of the proposed measure. This cannot be done unless the subject is properly discussed in committee and if examined there with care much labor will be saved when the proposition is submitted to the senate.

"If the Democratic members are of any use on the committee it must be because they will be able to give this information. Besides, a fair presentation of the views of the minority may lead to immediate changes in improvement of the bill. If we consent to the adoption of the plan outlined by the Republican members it will be said that we have given away our case and are representing but half hearted opposition. Such a scheme would be novel, would require explanation, and cannot result favorably to public interests. If our Republican brethren have improved the bill so as to make it possibly digestible they can afford to submit it to careful and conservative criticism in the committee room."

GREAT LAND SALE!

The Chester Land Company

WILL ON TUESDAY, APRIL 27,

AT 1:30 O'CLOCK P. M.,

AGAIN PLACE THEIR LOTS UPON THE MARKET.

This will give to the people of East Liverpool and vicinity an opportunity to get a home at hitherto unheard of prices. These lots were placed upon the market last fall for a period of five weeks, and we then sold over $39,000 worth of property, and were then taken off the market until now. This property it is unnecessary to describe to our citizens, as it is so well known to all, being that beautiful level river front and bottom land lying immediately opposite East Liverpool, between the new bridge and Rock Spring Pleasure Resort. The lots are all large and level, mostly 40x140 feet, and fronting on wide beautiful streets. These lots we propose selling at last year's prices, which range from $200 to $500 a lot, and on terms to suit the purchaser. Special inducements to purchasers on the opening day, so intending buyers should be on hand and thus save a liberal discount.

What Has Chester to Offer to Intending Purchasers? Chester is, from a commercial standpoint, a part and parcel of East Liverpool, one of the most progressive cities of a population of 15,000 to be found anywhere; where real estate is high and advancing daily; where a good residence lot anywhere near the center of the city will cost you from $3,000 to $5,000. Why pay such fabulous prices when a better lot can be had in Chester for from $300 to $500.

Chester will be connected with East Liverpool inside of the next 20 days with an electric railway. The Panhandle railroad will be extended this summer, and when this is done we will have two factories located in Chester which will give employment to 500 skilled workmen, which alone will insure a population of 2,000 people. This, with the natural overflow from our already crowded and thickly built city insures for Chester a population of several thousand people. Do not stand back and say this cannot be, for we have already demonstrated to this community our ability to work out problems of this character.

Chester is no myth, as many of our wealthiest and most influential citizens are placing their money there. Some of them have already erected substantial business buildings, and others are preparing to do so, and before the snow falls we shall see a thrifty little city of considerable magnitude.

Chester is located in West Virginia, the home of low taxation, taxes being 8-10 of 1 per cent.

Speculators and investors, no such an opportunity for large returns on your money has ever knocked at your door, and perhaps will never come again. Those who are wise will be on hand and avail themselves of this great opportunity to secure a valuable lot for a small amount of money. The sale will commence on the ground Tuesday, April 27, 1897, at 1:30 o'clock p. m. For further information address coming up, holding his stomach with his hands. He said he was shot and wanted to go to the doctor's. I helped him to in front of John's store and he fell. It was ten minutes after Malone talked to me before the shot was fired. I never heard Malone threaten one of the Geisse family."

WILL GEISSE SAID MALONE SHOT HIM

In the cross examination the witness said: "The conversation occurred in the Geisse kitchen. Mrs. Geisse was in the kitchen when Malone pulled the gun. Malone was very close to me. I was leaning against the table. Mrs. Geisse couldn't help but hear him say what he did." This closed the testimony, and the court took a recess until 6:30.

The court room was crowded in the evening when the interested parties took their places, and Amos Herron, a big colored barber with a small voice was called. He recognized the revolver shown him as one he had given Ed Geisse last week, and said Frank Geisse had shown him another revolver Saturday morning.

George Noble said: "Malone talked to me last Monday. He had a gun in his pocket. I didn't see it. He told me so. I went to the Geisse house and Malone and Ed had some trouble, and I advised Ed to go out. They were good friends when sober, and I didn't attach much importance to Malone's threats. I don't consider Malone a desperate man."

"I was sitting on Lawson's steps, not far from the Geisse house, when I heard screams," said J. T. Thorn. "I ran to the house. Saw Bill Geisse run out, and said 'My God, I'm shot.' I didn't see Malone or Ed. I wouldn't undertake to say whether the shot was fired before he came out."

"I had a conversation with Willie after he was shot," said Frank Geisse. "He looked up at me and said 'I am going to die.' I said no, keep up courage, it's half the battle my boy. Then I lay down beside him, and he put his arms around my neck and kissed me. I told him I was his only friend and I wanted him to tell me the truth. If Ed done it I want to know. If Pat done it, I want to know, too. Willie says: 'I started in the door, and Malone stood in the back room, and fired at Ed and hit me.' About 15 minutes before he died he asked where Malone was, and I told him down at city hall, and asked if he wanted to see him. 'No, I don't,' he said. I talked with him two hours after he was shot. It was before Squire Riley took his statement."

Mr. Brookes objected to the testimony, but it was admitted, and the witness gave way to Mrs. Bertha Porter, sister of the deceased. She was greatly agitated. She said: "I was in front of the house talking to Arthur Hindle, of Liverpool, when Will came out and said, 'Pat, that's enough.' Soon after the shot was fired Willie dropped and so did I. Pat went in a few minutes before, and he said he would fill Ed and the family full of holes. Mother didn't come out and scream murder. Willie was in the hall or coming out when shot. I never heard Pat make such threats as in the last week.

Mrs. Reager, a neighbor, testified to Pat's "fussing" with the family at 6:30. He showed a revolver, and made threats.

Officer Cohagen was recalled, and said Ed Geisse had a bottle half full of whisky in his hip pocket after Malone was arrested. His vest buckle hung over it, and he thought it was a revolver.

Arthur Hindle testified to talking to Mrs. Porter at the gate, and told almost the same story. After the shot, Will came out, and he left at once. He only heard one shot, and believed it was before Will came out.

Ed Bunting told the same story as that given at the inquest, and published in the NEWS REVIEW. "Will was on the walk when the shot was fired. I saw him there. He was on the walk when the shot was fired. After I went in Ed came from the front of the house. He had something in his hand, and was going to hit Pat. There was a light in the back room, but none in the front."

"I heard the shot and saw Bill come out," said Frank Kiddy. "I went in the sitting room and saw Dennis holding Pat on the bed. I went out for a cop, and found a gun with three loads in it on the floor in the front room. I put it in my pocket."

The cross examination developed that he took the three loaded shells out of the revolver, and then gave it to Chief Warren. "Will was inside the house when the shot was fired. I followed Bunting into the house, and I saw Dennis holding Malone down on the bed."

Ed Bunting was recalled, and said he went into the house behind Dennis.

"I think the shot he fired hit Will. I am positive of it. He could have shot so that the ball would pass to the street. I dropped the revolver I had on the floor. I did not want to shoot. In my judgment the shot Malone fired at me killed my brother. I am not in the habit of carrying a revolver. I had one last week. This is the one I dropped on the floor. I did not have it in mind to kill Malone. He had the gun in his right hand, and when he got in the door he fired. The shot passed over my right side, and the fire flashed in my face."

"I took Will upstairs and put him to bed," said Frank, "and he told me not to leave him. I went down for comforts, and while there saw a revolver in the back hall room. I put it in my pocket. Kiddy told me he had a revolver, and I said, 'that's strange; I have one, too.' I said to Willie, 'Tell me the truth. I don't care who it convicts.'

"'Frank, if I hadn't gone into the house I wouldn't have been shot,' he said. 'Malone shot me. He didn't mean it for me, he meant it for Ed. I was standing at the room door in the hall. Ed was at the middle room door. Malone was facing Ed. Ed was looking away from him, and Malone toward him. When I found I was shot I started to hunt you."

He said he thought Malone had a grudge against Ed. There is no doubt but what Malone shot Will," he continued. "The revolver I picked up had four loaded chambers and one empty. It was new."

Frank Kidder also testified, and the doctors told what they know about the boy's death.

DOING WELL.

The Soliciting Committee of the Christian Church Making Progress.

The soliciting committee read its report to the official board of the Christian church last night. The report showed the committee had collected nearly $5,000, about three-fourths of the amount subscribed. Entertainments by several Sunday school classes will be given soon, which, they hope, will swell the amount. Other reports read showed work was progressing rapidly.

SOMETHING WRONG.

A Wheeling Man Accosted In a Peculiar Manner.

C. D. Gill, of Wheeling, last night went to the station at 1:30, a. m., got officer McMillan, and the two went to his room at 127, Seventh street. They could find no one in the room, although Gill swore someone was trying to suffocate him. He gained an entrance to the Hotel Grand and at 4:30 he was thrown out. He couldn't explain why he was there or how he got in. He left town this morning.

To my patrons, and those contemplating building, permit me to state: I have made plans and constructed the building for more than three times the number of any other one Architect in this county, during my nine years practice in this city, and in each case devoted careful study that I might not cause you to expend one dollar where it was not required, and yet give you a building free from cracked or settled walls, both interior and exterior, free from unsightly cast iron plates on the side of your building, or cumbersome "hog chains" extending down in your finished rooms to support a roof, as some are in this city, constructed by those professing to know better. I guarantee you a saving in each building of many times what the plans cost you, and the most substantial of structures. We profit by other people's mistakes. We study. We are progressive. We put strength where it belongs. It was the unlearned and illiterate Egyptians who constructed their buildings with 9 to 14 foot thick walls, regardless of size of building, because their forefathers did the same. Science has taught practical architects that necessity demands practical economy. We are up to date on any style building you want. Make you blue print copies of your plans. Type written specifications. Duplicate or triplicate copies when desired. Make you neat sketches of all contemplated building, free of charge, as all firstclass architects do. We charge you a reasonable compensation for our work, which we allow you to determine, while with some "half a loaf is better than none." Beware of the man who proposes to make your plans for nothing. Somebody's going to pay dear for them in the end. We are too busy to announce all the leading points on this subject. We are completing the 23d contract for plans since January, '97. Call and see me.

About 15 minutes before he died he asked where Malone was, and I told him down at city hall, and asked if he wanted to see him. 'No, I don't,' he said. I talked with him two hours after he was shot. It was before Squire Riley took his statement."

Mr. Brookes objected to the testimony, but it was admitted, and the witness gave way to Mrs. Bertha Porter, sister of the deceased. She was greatly agitated. She said: "I was in front of the house talking to Arthur Hindle, of Liverpool, when Will came out and said, 'Pat, that's enough.' Soon after the shot was fired Willie dropped and so did I. Pat went in a few minutes before, and he said he would fill Ed and the family full of holes. Mother didn't come out and scream murder. Willie was in the hall or coming out when shot. I never heard Pat make such threats as in the last week.

Mrs. Reager, a neighbor, testified to Pat's "fussing" with the family at 6:30. He showed a revolver, and made threats.

Officer Cohagen was recalled, and said Ed Geisse had a bottle half full of whisky in his hip pocket after Malone was arrested. His vest buckle hung over it, and he thought it was a revolver.

Arthur Hindle testified to talking to Mrs. Porter at the gate, and told almost the same story. After the shot, Will came out, and he left at once. He only heard one shot, and believed it was before Will came out.

Ed Bunting told the same story as that given at the inquest, and published in the NEWS REVIEW. "Will was on the walk when the shot was fired. I saw him there. He was on the walk when the shot was fired. After I went in Ed came from the front of the house. He had something in his hand, and was going to hit Pat. There was a light in the back room, but none in the front."

"I heard the shot and saw Bill come out," said Frank Kiddy. "I went in the sitting room and saw Dennis holding Pat on the bed. I went out for a cop, and found a gun with three loads in it on the floor in the front room. I put it in my pocket."

The cross examination developed that he took the three loaded shells out of the revolver, and then gave it to Chief Warren. "Will was inside the house when the shot was fired. I followed Bunting into the house, and I saw Dennis holding Malone down on the bed."

Ed Bunting was recalled, and said he went into the house behind Dennis.

"I think the shot he fired hit Will. I am positive of it. He could have shot so that the ball would pass to the street. I dropped the revolver I had on the floor. I did not want to shoot. In my judgment the shot Malone fired at me killed my brother. I am not in the habit of carrying a revolver. I had one last week. This is the one I dropped on the floor. I did not have it in mind to kill Malone. He had the gun in his right hand, and when he got in the door he fired. The shot passed over my right side, and the fire flashed in my face."

"I took Will upstairs and put him to bed," said Frank, "and he told me not to leave him. I went down for comforts, and while there saw a revolver in the back hall room. I put it in my pocket. Kiddy told me he had a revolver, and I said, 'that's strange; I have one, too.' I said to Willie, 'Tell me the truth. I don't care who it convicts.'

"'Frank, if I hadn't gone into the house I wouldn't have been shot,' he said. 'Malone shot me. He didn't mean it for me, he meant it for Ed. I was standing at the room door in the hall. Ed was at the middle room door. Malone was facing Ed. Ed was looking away from him, and Malone toward him. When I found I was shot I started to hunt you."

He said he thought Malone had a grudge against Ed. There is no doubt but what Malone shot Will," he continued. "The revolver I picked up had four loaded chambers and one empty. It was new."

Frank Kidder also testified, and the doctors told what they know about the boy's death.

DOING WELL.

The Soliciting Committee of the Christian Church Making Progress.

The soliciting committee read its report to the official board of the Christian church last night. The report showed the committee had collected nearly $5,000, about three-fourths of the amount subscribed. Entertainments by several Sunday school classes will be given soon; which, they hope, will swell the amount. Other reports read showed work was progressing rapidly.

He couldn't explain why he was there or how he got in. He left town this morning.

A. W. SCOTT, Architect.

To my patrons, and those contemplating building, permit me to state: I have made plans and constructed the building for more than three times the number of any other one Architect in this county, during my nine years practice in this city, and in each case devoted careful study that I might not cause you to expend one dollar where it was not required, and yet give you a building free from cracked or settled walls, both interior and exterior, free from unsightly cast iron plates on the side of your building, or cumbersome "hog chains" extending down in your finished rooms to support a roof, as some are in this city, constructed by those professing to know better. I guarantee you a saving in each building of many times what the plans cost you, and the most substantial of structures. We profit by other people's mistakes. We study. We are progressive. We put strength where it belongs. It was the unlearned and illiterate Egyptians who constructed their buildings with 9 to 14 foot thick walls, regardless of size of building, because their forefathers did the same. Science has taught practical architects that necessity demands practical economy. We are up to date on any style building you want. Make you blue print copies of your plans. Type written specifications. Duplicate or triplicate copies when desired. Make you neat sketches of all contemplated building, free of charge, as all firstclass architects do. We charge you a reasonable compensation for our work, which we allow you to determine, while with some "half a loaf is better than none." Beware of the man who proposes to make your plans for nothing. Somebody's going to pay dear for them in the end. We are too busy to announce all the leading points on this subject. We are completing the 23d contract for plans since January, '97. Call and see me.

CONDEMNED THE JAIL

LISBON, April 27.—[Special.]—The court last evening granted a divorce to Ida B. Cavendish, of Salem. She also got her maiden name. They live in Salem.

The will of Geo. W. Spahr, of St. Clair, was presented for probate, and owing to the absence of one witness, a commission was issued to take testimony.

Ohio, in behalf of Lillian L. Harris, of Palestine, is prosecuting an action filed in court this morning against Daniel W. Moore, as treasurer of the board of education. In it Miss Harris demands the payment of $120, salary for two months' teaching in the Palestine schools. At the beginning of the '96 term Miss Harris' sister was employed as teacher and on her resignation Lillian was employed to teach the remainder of the year. Last week she gave the treasurer of the board her order for $120, and he refused to pay. An alternative writ of mandamus was issued this morning commanding Moore to honor the order.

Dr. J. P. Byers, of Columbus, representing the state board of charities, is here today, and this morning made his annual visit to the jail. Although no official report of his finding has been made, it was stated by him that his opinion of the structure coincides in every particular with that of the grand juries for years and of every citizen of the county who has the slightest personal knowledge of its condition. Doctor Byers will report at once to the state board of health.

Marriage licenses were issued to Mr. Jackson and Rosetta Allison, East Liverpool; F. C. Graynam, Salem, and, Anna L. McLelland, Lisbon.

Judge Smith has appointed W. C. Johnson, of Liverpool, county auctioneer for one year. He gave $1,000 bond.

TEN WITNESSES

Will Testify Before the Grand Jury Tomorrow.

Patrick Malone was taken from Wellsville to the Lisbon jail this morning. The case will come before the grand jury tomorrow, and ten witnesses have been summoned to appear. They were the principal witnesses at the inquest and the hearing. Much speculation is being indulged in as to the probable outcome of the case, and Malone's friends are confident he will walk out of the court room a free man. They hold that the statement of Willie Geisse to Squire Riley will be the only testimony on that point which will be accepted by the court. Mayor Jones stated last night after he had announced the result of the hearing, that the charge was made what it was in order that there be no mistake. The case will be heard in Lisbon as soon as possible.

DRUNK ON THE TRACK.

He Was Almost Run Down by a Street Car.

The Wellsville road was a favorite place for drunks the other night, and one came near being run down by a car. He had fallen on the track, and his head lay on the rail when Motorman Knapp, in charge of the car, chanced to see him. He at once applied the brake, and stopped the car not five feet from the drunk. The man could stand only with difficulty.

A HELPING HAND

A meeting of the trustees of Riverview Cemetery association was held last night, and it was decided to appropriate the necessary ground and $1,200 for the building of the memorial chapel to be erected in honor of the old soldiers. The generous gift advances the project materially and insures its success.

While the other members of the Elsa party were permitted to leave Havana, he was thrown into prison, where he remained in a dungeon from January 9 till March 14.

He was not permitted to communicate with the American consul, but finally the British consul, visiting the prison, saw him, and secured his release. To get to Cuba Captain Challner was compelled to go to London on a British steamer. He returned to this country by way of Quebec, and is happy at being able to rejoin his family.

A CLOSE SHAVE.

Do all our readers know why a barber's pole or sign is always striped red, white and blue; why the blue was added to the red and white, and why sometimes you will find other colors added? If not, read this: When cupping or blood letting was the panacea for every ill the barber shop was always used. At first under the supervision of a physician, by and by, to save the physician's fee, the barber undertook the jobs himself. When he had the patronage of the upper crust he added the blue stripe to indicate the blue blood of his customers. Now, lastly, if you ever run across a sign with any other color added, the painter who decorated it or the barber who instructed him was ignorant of the traditional and time honored origin. It is certain that if Mr. Jacob Schenkle, whose parlor is at 138 Sixth street, had lived in New England or old England before, during and after the time when the thirteen states rebelled, blood letting would have been resorted to in his case, for it invariably was treated by making two incisions, one on each side of the spine. Close shaves from death was the order of the day and even if the victim survived the operation he was weakened and debilitated for months. Mr. Schenkle used Doan's Kidney Pills when last attacked. Here is his experience: "I have been troubled on and off for several years, probably the result of a neglected cold, with a weakness of my back and kidneys, severe pains across the loins around through my thighs, at times so bad that it was impossible for me to get out of bed, cramps through my limbs, and frequent attacks of dizziness. I was recommended to try Doan's Kidney Pills and procured a box at the W. and W. Pharmacy. They so thoroughly removed my trouble and acted as a general tonic that I have had no bother since and could not have felt better."

Doan's Kidney Pills for sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cents. Mailed by Foster-Milburn Company, Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Japanese Alloys.

It is said that a number of Japanese recipes for the making of alloys which have hitherto been kept a close secret have been revealed by workmen engaged in making them. Among these is the shadko, an alloy of copper and from 1 to 10 per cent of gold. This, when placed in a mordant of sulphate of copper, alum and verdigris assumes the coppered or blue black hue of sword sheaths and decorative articles. Gnishi-buichi is a copper alloy with 30 or 50 per cent of silver, of the well known gray color. Mokume is a compound of several alloys. About 30 plates or foils of gold, shadko copper, silver and the last mentioned alloy are soldered together. In this holes are made, the plate is hammered out and put into the mordant. The finest Japanese brass, sinchu, is given as consisting of ten parts copper and five of zinc. The bell metal karakame is made out of 10 parts of copper, 4 of tin, one-half of iron and 1½ of zinc.

To the Public.

I would call the attention of all persons contemplating building to the fact that it will be to their interest to see me, as I have cut my charges one-half; my present price being three-fourths up to one and one-half per cent. of the cost of building and in some cases a fraction more. Having many years practice in contracting, building, drawing plans and specifications and knowing the strength of all material and work, both by theory and practice, and therefore have no need of measuring up other architects work. I can guarantee all buildings I draw plans and specifications for, and superintend, to stand the test and the walls not crack and settle out of plumb as some specimens we have in this city have done.

CONDEMNED THE JAIL

LISBON, April 27.—[Special.]—The court last evening granted a divorce to Ida B. Cavendish, of Salem. She also got her maiden name. They live in Salem.

The will of Geo. W. Spahr, of St. Clair, was presented for probate, and owing to the absence of one witness, a commission was issued to take testimony.

Ohio, in behalf of Lillian L. Harris, of Palestine, is prosecuting an action filed in court this morning against Daniel W. Moore, as treasurer of the board of education. In it Miss Harris demands the payment of $120, salary for two months' teaching in the Palestine schools. At the beginning of the '96 term Miss Harris' sister was employed as teacher and on her resignation Lillian was employed to teach the remainder of the year. Last week she gave the treasurer of the board her order for $120, and he refused to pay. An alternative writ of mandamus was issued this morning commanding Moore to honor the order.

Dr. J. P. Byers, of Columbus, representing the state board of charities, is here today, and this morning made his annual visit to the jail. Although no official report of his finding has been made, it was stated by him that his opinion of the structure coincides in every particular with that of the grand juries for years and of every citizen of the county who has the slightest personal knowledge of its condition. Doctor Byers will report at once to the state board of health.

Judge Smith has appointed W. C. Johnson, of Liverpool, county auctioneer for one year. He gave $1,000 bond.

TEN WITNESSES

Will Testify Before the Grand Jury Tomorrow.

Patrick Malone was taken from Wellsville to the Lisbon jail this morning. The case will come before the grand jury tomorrow, and ten witnesses have been summoned to appear. They were the principal witnesses at the inquest and the hearing. Much speculation is being indulged in as to the probable outcome of the case, and Malone's friends are confident he will walk out of the court room a free man. They hold that the statement of Willie Geisse to Squire Riley will be the only testimony on that point which will be accepted by the court. Mayor Jones stated last night after he had announced the result of the hearing, that the charge was made what it was in order that there be no mistake. The case will be heard in Lisbon as soon as possible.

DRUNK ON THE TRACK.

He Was Almost Run Down by a Street Car.

The Wellsville road was a favorite place for drunks the other night, and one came near being run down by a car. He had fallen on the track, and his head lay on the rail when Motorman Knapp, in charge of the car, chanced to see him. He at once applied the brake, and stopped the car not five feet from the drunk. The man could stand only with difficulty.

A HELPING HAND

A meeting of the trustees of Riverview Cemetery association was held last night, and it was decided to appropriate the necessary ground and $1,200 for the building of the memorial chapel to be erected in honor of the old soldiers. The generous gift advances the project materially and insures its success.

SENT SOME MONEY.

East Liverpool Is Helping India's Poor People.

The Christian workers' committee this morning sent $116.83 to the suffering people of India, $7.88 of which was subscribed by the Methodist Protestant Sunday school. The suffering in India appeals to the sympathies of all people, and when it is known two cents will keep a man, woman or child a day, a dollar will support them until next harvest, then it is not hard to secure funds. Kelsey Bennett, Miss Jennie Rowe, and Mrs. Frank Poland have charge of the work.

While the other members of the Elsa party were permitted to leave Havana, he was thrown into prison, where he remained in a dungeon from January 9 till March 14.

He was not permitted to communicate with the American consul, but finally the British consul, visiting the prison, saw him, and secured his release. A CLOSE SHAVE.

Do all our readers know why a barber's pole or sign is always striped red, white and blue; why the blue was added to the red and white, and why sometimes you will find other colors added? At first under the supervision of a physician, by and by, to save the physician's fee, the barber undertook the jobs himself.
